20 minutes of dialogue with audience

Evaluation Workshop

Cosponsored by the Prevent Cancer Foundation and the National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable, this learning exchange will provide an opportunity to share successful evaluation strategies and to discuss issues commonly faced in evaluating colorectal cancer control efforts. Discussion topics will be driven by attendee interest and might include measuring the success of policy efforts, designing evaluation for mass media campaigns, acquiring baseline data, weighing the benefits and weaknesses of online surveys, building on the Community Guide, etc. Attendees are invited to come ready to suggest topics they would like to discuss.

Facilitators: Cheryl Holm-Hansen, PhD, Wilder Research
Heather M. Brandt, PhD, University of South Carolina

1:00 – 3:15 p.m.

Information Exchange about State and Tribal Colorectal Cancer Screening Programs

Because the Dialogue attracts participants from many states (33 states, 9 AI/AN organizations and the District of Columbia in 2014), the 2015 Dialogue will again host this meeting of the National Colorectal Cancer Screening Network for peer-to-peer information sharing, in support of the “80% by 2018” national colorectal cancer screening initiative.

Moderators: Jennifer Boehm, MPH, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Melissa Leypoldt, RN, Nebraska Women’s and Men’s Health Programs
Holly Wolf, PhD, Colorado School of Public Health

3:30 – 5:30 p.m.

American Indian/Alaska Native Meeting to Share Experiences with Cancer Screening Programs in Indian Country

Starting with a discussion about potential for technologies to increase access to screening in remote areas, this meeting also provides an opportunity for attendees who work with breast and cervical, colorectal or lung cancer screening programs in Indian Country to share their experiences. The Dialogue serves as an important source of information and networking for Indian Country. Everybody welcome!

Moderators: Noel Pingatore, MPH, Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan
Donald T. Haverkamp, MPH, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Discussant: Ariel Beery, MobileODT
